

1 The defense makes this request because Docket No. 112-4 contains a letter in support
2 of Defendant Mohammed Nuru that was mistakenly filed. That letter is at Dkt. No. 112-4, 3 MNURU_0058, and is part of Exhibit D to Mohammed Nuru's Sentencing Memorandum and 4 Motion for Downward Variance. If the letter is not removed from the docket, it will have 5 negative employment consequences for the author of that letter, Mrs. DiJaida Durden.

6 Mrs. Durden is employed as a Deputy Director of the Department of Public Works.
7 Mrs. Durden submitted that letter in her personal capacity—not her professional capacity as a
8 Public Works employee. That letter was mistakenly submitted on the Department of Public 9 Works letterhead. But she did not intend this to reflect the opinion of the Department of 10 Public Works, it reflects only her personal opinion. It should not have been submitted on 11 Department of Public Works letterhead. This was an error.

12 Mrs. Durden has corrected this mistake. Defense counsel filed a Notice of Errata at 13 Docket No. 116, with the corrected Exhibit D, with a letter from Mrs. Durden in her personal 14 capacity at MNURU_0058.

15 The defense respectfully requests that Docket No. 112-4 be removed from the docket
16 to avoid any negative employment consequences for Mrs. Durden that will result from this 17 erroneously filed document.

18 DATED: August 25, 2022

19 Respectfully submitted,
